- Community of Italians – Pula-Pola (Carrarina ul. 1)

on Thursday, September 22, and Friday, September 23, 2022, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m.

Each participant will be entitled to stamp two bases.

The subjects of the works are: GRISIGNANA – ISTRIAN LANDSCAPE

The artists may choose freely both the technique and the materials, provided that they comply with some certified characteristics such as steadiness, durability through time, easy maintenance and low handling costs. Format must not exceed 100 x 120 cm. The works shall be displayed by the participants themselves by 11:00 a.m. of Sunday, September 25, 2022 in Piazza Grande and along the street that goes from Piazza Grande to the Loggia, as well as along the adjacent streets. The works will be displayed until 5:00 p.m. Each participant shall place the card received at the moment of the registration on the back of every work, with the following details written on it: name and surname, address, work title, figurative technique and value in Kunas or Euro. The international jury will award the prize, regardless of the value of the work. The judgment is not open to appeal. Participation in the Ex Tempore implies complete acceptance of the regulations. The first two prizes will be held as property of the Unione Italiana - Fiume, while the third prize will be held as property of the Comunità degli Italiani di Grisignana.
